ABOUT RELIGION.

A Chicago Policeman Shoots One of His Comrades.

DILLON AND O'BRIEN REACH FRANCE.

A Uniform System of Weights and Measures for Mexico and the United States to Be Agreed on.

CHICAGO, October 15.—Police Officer Junge was shot and is believed to be fatally wounded by a brother officer at 3 o'clock this morning. Junge got into an argument with Officer Tom Madden about religion. Madden accused Junge of belonging to the United Order of Deputies, which is supposed to be an anti-Catholic society. One word brought on another until Junge struck Madden with his club, when the latter drew his pistol and shot Junge in the left side above the heart. After the shooting Madden disappeared and has not yet been arrested.

DILLON AND O'BRIEN.

They Are in Paris Preparing to Come to America.

PARIS, October 15.—La Presse says that Dillon and O'Brien, after their flight from Tipperary, took passage on a sailing vessel and landed at Luc-Sur-Mar, on the coast of Normandy, on Sunday. They passed the night at the residence of Raffalovich, the banker, whose daughter is the wife of O'Brien. On Monday they came to Paris and thence proceeded to Raffalovich's country house at Gite., in the Department of Seine Et Oise. They returned to Paris last night. Their address in the city is a secret, and if the news received from America is favorable to the Irish mission to that country, they will start for New York at the end of the week. If it becomes manifest that it is their intention to remain in Paris the Government will request them to leave.

Rumors are in circulation that Raffalovich and the members of his family declare that Dillon and O'Brien have not been in France and assert that they have sailed for America.

DUBLIN, October 15.—The Telegraph says that Dillon and O'Brien have arrived at Cherbourg on board a yacht, and are stopping at a hotel at that place.

THE TIPPERARY TRIALS.

rosecution Laboring To Prove a Conspiracy.

TIPPERARY, October 15.—The trial of the alleged conspirators was resumed today and evidence was given with the object of showing that the defendants used their influence among the tenants on the Smith-Barry estate, in the direction of inducing them not to pay their rents. The first witness called by the prosecution was a policeman. He testified that the defendants, in company with John Kelly, made visits to the Smith-Barry tenants. Healy asked Crown Prosecutor Ronan why this evidence about Kelly was introduced. Ronan replied the object was to connect Kelly with the O'Brien-Dillon part of the conspiracy. Healy protested against the court dealing with a matter anterior to the time mentioned in the summons. Objection overruled.

During the proceedings, Healey of counsel for the defendants, was handed a dispatch from Dillon and O'Brien, announcing their arrival at Cherbourg, France, today. The utmost reticence is observed among Nationalists as to the manner in which they eluded the police. The Government endeavored to learn who aided them to escape, and, if discovered, they will be prosecuted.

A dispatch from Chicago states that a Deputy Sheriff from Kansas at that place re-arrested, as soon as he was released from Bridewell, Frank Woodruff, alias Black, who was notorious in the Cronin case, and who also was important witness against George Jones, convicted in Oakland of the murder of Lorenzo Dutli. Woodruff is wanted in Kansas for horse stealing. Old George Jones was seen at the County Jail this afternoon and asked what he thought about Woodruff's troubles. "That man will lie where the truth would serve him better," said old Jones. "He lied about me, and tried to swear my life away. He is now being well punished for all the trouble he has given me. His story, told on the witness stand, in my case, was absolutely untrue."

A Lover's Quarrel.

LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS IN SESSION.

The Pope Summons the Irish Archbishops to Rome—The Ohio Legislature in Extra Session.

STOCKTON, October 15.—Governor Stanford and wife received a most hearty welcome from many thousands of Stockton people today. It was a great demonstration. About one hundred prominent citizens were named as a reception committee, and, under the chairmanship of R. E. Wilhoit, they met the Senator at the depot at noon. Thousands of the Senator's friends were there to meet him, and were following the Sixth Infantry Band. They escorted the Senator and his party to the Pavilion, which was already crowded with people and school children. The public schools had been given a recess so the public could meet Senator and Mrs. Stanford and were there 2200 in number. There were upwards of five thousand adults in the great pavilion, making an enthusiastic throng. The Senator responded at some length to the welcome of the citizens. The citizens called upon the couple to shake their hands. Mrs. Stanford and the Senator took positions on the floor and the multitude passed by to greet them. Mrs. Stanford pressed the hands of more than two thousand school children, always having a kindly smile for them. The Senator was equally busy until the time arrived for the train to leave when they were escorted back to the station. The Senator and his friends were greatly surprised at the outpouring of people and on such short notice and improved every opportunity to express their gratitude for the honor. M'GREW'S CONTRACT.

He Will Have to Fight it Through the Courts.

THE WOES OF THE PIMENTELS AGAIN.

Incorporation of the Builders' Exchange—The Chinese Substitutes Raise a Legal Quibble.

The five members of the Board of Supervisors have been defendants in a suit brought by C. L. Bigelow and D. P. N. Little, who conduct a business under the firm name of Bigelow & Little. The firm in their complaint assert that they presented to the Board of Supervisors a bid for doing the iron and steel work on the addition to the County Jail, and proposed to do the work for $8178. P. H. McGrew also entered a bid for the same work and was declared to be the lowest responsible bidder. The plaintiffs charge that the bid of McGrew was $8 50, while their bid was $8178. They, therefore, apply to the court for an alternate writ of mandate commanding the Supervisors to award the plaintiffs the contract and to restrain them from entering into a contract with McGrew.

The corporation has no capital stock. The directors for the first year are: J. S. Burpee, P. A. Cameron, C. L. Tinder, G. A. Kirk, George Miller, P. Maloney, John Thexton, W. T. Veitch, J. S. THE SUBSTITUTES.

A Claim That the Information Is Not Legal.

The five Chinese substitutes who were caught at the County Jail, and who have caused John Morrison no end of trouble, were arraigned before Judge Gibson today to plead to the charge of assisting prisoners to escape from a jail. The Chinamen were represented by Attorneys Fitzgerald and Chapman, who objected to having them called upon to enter a plea until a demurrer to the informations against them had been disposed of. The demurrer recites that the information does not conform to the requirements of the penal code, and further that the facts therein stated do not constitute a public offense. Judge Gibson said that there was no doubt in his mind regarding the legality of the information. District Attorney Heed was certain that the information was all right, and was willing to allow it to go to the Supreme Court. However, Judge Gibson wanted to hear some argument on the subject, and his wish will be gratified tomorrow morning.

ANOTHER MONTH'S ALIMONY.

A Husband Who Objects to Supporting His Wife.

The divorce suit of Amelia Pimentel against James Pimentel was set for trial before Judge Ellsworth this morning. The lady, however, was not anxious to proceed with the case, and showed that some of her important witnesses were absent in the country, and therefore she could not afford to go trial, and asked for a continuance. To this Pimentel made a strenuous objection, asserting that he is tired of paying his wife alimony and wants a trial of the case. However, as a legal showing had been made the case was continued until October 15th. Mrs. Pimentel will endeavor to show the court that her husband has treated her in a cruel manner and has been untrue to her. On the other hand the husband charges that his wife has consorted with other men to rob him financially, and that she has been guilty of acts which were not honorable for any woman. In this case there will be a very bitter contest.

HEART FAILURE.

Charles T. Boardman Drops in His Office.

ANXIETY CAUSES SERIOUS ILLNESS.

The County Clerk Has Taken Money From Trust Funds—His Resignation Handed to His Bondsmen.

When Charles T. Boardman, County Clerk and Auditor, walked into the Hall of Records this morning, the effect of physical distress and mental trouble was apparent on his countenance. He was pale and his face was covered with beads of perspiration indicating extraordinary nervous depression. About an hour after he had arrived at his office, when standing by the counter, he suddenly uttered a cry indicating intense pain, raised his hands to the left side of his breast and fell heavily upon the floor. As he fell his head struck against a corner of the counter, causing a scalp wound whence blood flowed freely. Dr. Crowley, who happened to be in the Courthouse across the street, was called to attend Mr. Boardman. He found that the County Clerk was suffering from heart failure. The worries of the past few months, the climax that came upon the information that he has not all the money deposited with him in trust, and an enfeebled physical condition, caused collapse. For a time the heart ceased entirely to beat. Then Mr. Boardman revived a little, but was very weak. Dr. Crowley informed him that he is very ill, and advised that he be taken at once from his office. He was accordingly driven to a private hospital and put to bed. At noon today the house surgeon said that Mr. Boardman is very seriously ill. No person whatever, not even members of his family, will be permitted to visit him for several days, because any excitement might produce relapse with fatal result. He will be confined to his room for days and possibly for weeks.

The reasons for this sudden collapse were indicated last evening in THE TRIBUNE. Therein was the intimation made that the sureties on his official bond were not satisfied with the administration of his office and that a belief was expressed that he had not in his possession all the moneys deposited in trust for probate fees and in escrow. This belief is now a certainty. The cash book shows that a certain sum should be on hand, and the sum on hand is about $5300 less than the amount required by the books. The money of the county is intact. The settlements with the County Treasurer were made when required. The deficiency is in the funds, other than the funds of the county, of which the Clerk is custodian.

The money, undoubtedly, was spent by Mr. Boardman in reckless living. During the last several months he has been drinking strong liquors to excess, and he was also given to gambling at cards. He seemed to be somewhat affected mentally, and for six months past his best friends have deemed him irresponsible. He did not himself have any idea that he was short $3300, though he knew that he had used some of the money placed on deposit, and expected to replace it from his salary. That he had no conception that he owed the trust funds more than he could readily pay from his salary is shown by the fact that recently he paid several private debts, amounting to more than the amount taken from the moneys in his office. Had he given his attention to the trust funds he certainly would have repaid the money due them, and saved the present disgrace that now weighs him down, and permitted his private debts to remain unpaid until he could earn the money.

The facts have been known to the sureties upon the official bond of Mr. Boardman for a few days, and they have given considerable attention to consideration of the best plan to pursue. Several of the bondsmen, indeed the great majority, have expressed themselves willing to pay their share of the deficiency in the trust funds, and undoubtedly when any demand is made for the money it will be on hand ready for payment.

But finances are not the sole source of trouble and worry at the office of the County Clerk and Auditor. Much of the work in the office is far behind and this is the busiest season of the year. The extensions upon the assessment roll must be made during this month and the registers must be written up and printed. In addition to this present work of importance, much record work has been neglected and very active and intelligent labor is necessary to prepare the office for submission to Mr. Boardman's successor on the first Monday in January, 1891.

The bondsmen, however, feel the responsibility for completing the work, and have this subject even more seriously under consideration than the matter of repaying the money which has been spent. Several projects have been considered—one, to permit Mr. Boardman to serve the remainder of his term of office, but to designate some person other than he to manage the office; another, to have him resign and the Supervisors to appoint his successor. Mr. Boardman, whose deep contrition is pathetic, offers to abide by whatever the bondsmen may decide, and to give his time and labor in any way they may elect, to finish the delayed work and to recoup them, so far as he is able, for any loss his malfeasance may incur. Last evening he wrote his resignation from the offices of County Clerk and Auditor, and handed it to his bondsmen, to be presented to the Board of Supervisors if they deem that course the wisest.

Some of the bondsmen this morning conferred with the members of the Board of Supervisors and commonly agreed to decide immediately what course is best to follow and to report tomorrow to the Board of Supervisors.

The conditions are somewhat changed since yesterday by the serious illness of Mr. Boardman. His promises to give his time and labor of course cannot be fulfilled while he is in his present state of health.

The Grand Jury is in session and an expert appointed by the jury is making an investigation of the books and accounts of the offices of Clerk and Auditor. When that report is presented to the Grand Jury probably all the money shown by it to be due will be on hand.

The sureties upon the bonds of Mr. Boardman are as follows:

COUNTY CLERK.

J. J. White	$2 500
C. H. Rice	2,500
C. A. Klinkner	5,000
T. W. Mumford	6,000
W. J. Dingee	5,000
H. W. Meek	5,000
W. E. Darsie	5,000
V. H. Metcalf	5,000
Charles Jurgens	2,500
J. C. Martin	2,500
William Roberts	5,000
J. G. Edwards	5,000

COUNTY AUDITOR.

C. E. Palmer	$5,000
W. B. Hardy	5,000
Louis Schaffer	2 500
L. C. Morehouse	5,000
W. H. Holcomb	5,000
E. B. Dean	2,500
E. A. Haines	5,000
John Green	5,000
William Collins	5,000

Several of the morning papers printed paragraphs this morning declaring that Mr. Boardman could not be found and evidently had left this city. This statement is not true. Mr. Boardman has not been out of Oakland for several days. On Monday, when Mr. Dingee and Mr. Metcalf called at the Hotel Grellin to see him, he was out. He had not been at his office for several days, and hence came the impression that he had skipped.

THE SUPERVISORS.

A Brief and Unimportant Session of the County Fathers.

At the special meeting of the Board of Supervisors, this morning, all the members were present. As the board had the election proclamation and affairs in the County Clerk's office to discuss informally, the meeting was not called to order until after 11 o'clock.

Mrs. A. Smith of 654 Jefferson street made application for aid, and the matter was referred to Chairman Morgan.

Mrs. Isabella Hendry, another applicant, residing at 607 Adeline street, was given a permit to go to the County Infirmary.

A recess of twenty minutes was declared for the purpose of allowing the board to confer, in informal session, with the petitioners for the electric road to Haywards.

The board then adjourned until tomorrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

THE LAUNCHING OF THE SHIP.

The New Steamer Sunol Slides Gracefully Into the Creek.

The new steam schooner Sunol, which is to take the place of the Mendocino, wrecked at Humboldt a few months ago, was launched from the shipyard of Hay & Wright, on the Alameda side of the estuary, yesterday at noon. The launch was a complete success. The vessel went into the water sixty-eight days after the laying of the keel, and is finished in a most workmanlike manner. Her dimensions are 141 feet 6 inches over all; 32 feet 8 inches beam, and 10 feet 2 inches depth of hold. She will carry 375,000 feet of lumber. L. E. White of San Francisco is her owner, and she will ply between that city and Mendocino ports. She is to be taken to San Francisco at once to receive the boilers and machinery of the wrecked Mendocino.

THE INSTALLMENT PLAN.

Mrs. White's Troubles Regarding a Furniture Set.

The charges of disturbing the peace preferred against Dennis Doyle by Mrs. E. White, and that of battery placed against Lambert Gislow by the same lady, resulted in a judgment of not guilty in each case in the police court this morning.

The trials were rather interesting. Mrs. Smith had in San Francisco bought a parlor set from Noonan & Co. on the installment plan. Then she and her children came over here to live, taking a house at 1266 Seventh street, and she fell behind in her payments. Noonan & Co. warned her that she must pay up, but as she did not do so, they sent over Doyle and Gislow to reclaim the furniture. While they were removing it, the alleged misdemeanor occurred, but the testimony was rather conflicting, and the defendants got the benefit of the doubt.

THE CLUB LICENSES.

A Test Case—The Steward of the Athenians Arrested.

A test case is being made at last of the question whether or not the clubs must take out liquor licenses. James Vance, the steward of the Athenian Club, was last night arrested on a charge of violating an ordinance calling for licenses, and this morning the case was called up in court. It was, however, continued till tomorrow. This arrest was merely for the purpose of making a test case.

Reception in North Oakland.

A very pleasing entertainment was given last Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. Edwin Sutherland, North Oakland, by the Y's of that place, in honor of the return of their Vice-President, Mrs. C. Nelman, who, with her daughters, have just returned from a six months' trip to Europe. The young folks connected with the organization did their best to show their appreciation of and to welcome her return home. The rooms were prettily arranged with flowers. On one side, on a dark evergreen background, were placed the gilt letters, "Welcome Home," and opposite the letters "Y. W. C. U." A pleasing programme was rendered and a bountiful supply of refreshments were served.

DR. COLE DEAD.

The Expected End Came Early This Morning.

A PROMINENT AND HONORABLE LIFE.

His Career in This City—A Spotless Record and an Unimpeachable Character—Public Services.

Dr. R. E. Cole is dead. The call came soon after 6 o'clock this morning and he answered the summons without fear, for his life had been that of a true and honorable Christian gentleman. For the past thirty years his record has been prominently identified with that of the history of Oakland and in him the city loses one of her most valued and respected citizens.

Dr. Rector Elisha Cole was born in the town of Madison, Granger county, Ohio, on November 20, 1819. His father, Justin Cole, was born in Dalton, Berkshire county, Mass., February 4, 1787. His mother's family name was Merriman, and she was born in 1793. The marriage of his parents occurred August 8, 1811. The succeeding year they moved to the wilderness of Northern Ohio and settled upon a farm, where were born to them nine children. Dr. Cole enjoyed at this early period all the advantages the new State of Ohio afforded for education. When he was twenty years old, the father dying, the family removed to Oberlin, O., where better facilities were afforded for obtaining an education. Subsequently the death of a beloved sister and his own impaired health induced him to seek the more genial climate of New Orleans. Having previously read several practical works on dentistry he entered an office in that city, where he remained in the capacity both of pupil and assistant during two years.

In 1849 having entered into an engagement to proceed to San Francisco, as assistant assayer, he embarked on the steamer Galveston, accompanied by a large number of passengers for the same destination. The vessel was forty days in reaching Chagres, an two weeks more were consumed in crossing the Isthmus, with the machinery for their contemplated works arriving at Panama in April, 1849. The ship Humboldt having been hastily fitted for the occasion, Dr. Cole and party on the 20th of May re-embarked, and on arriving at Acapulco, Mexico was left behind to attend a sick companion, who subsequently died. Later he secured passage on the English ship Unicorn, and arrived in San Francisco October 10, 1849. The death of two of the company led to the abandonment of their original enterprise, and Dr. Cole determined to resume his profession.

He opened an office on Clay street, opposite the plaza, where, during, twenty-two years, he devoted himself entirely to the practice of dentistry. In 1871 the impaired state of his health induced him to visit the Eastern States. After a brief absence he returned to his home in Oakland and again devoted himself to his life's occupation.

When the Board of Education of Oakland was organized, Dr. Cole was elected one of its members. During many years he was one of its most efficient members, and was honored by being elected President of the board many times. His fellow-citizens, in grateful recognition of his services, have given to one of the public schools the name of the Cole school.

Dr. Cole was a member of California Lodge of Masons. He assisted in its organization in 1849, served three years as Master, and was also a member of the State Grand Lodge. He was also one of the Charter Members of Oakland Lodge No. 188, joining its company with Messrs. Spalding, Pardee and other honored citizens.

He was, after the age of 15 years, a member of the Congregational Church. He was one of the organizers of the First Congregational Church in Oakland, and has been moderator of its board since its organization until this year, when he declined because of ill health. He was for seven years superintendent of its Sunday school. In politics he was a Republican and was a member of the first Republican convention held in California.

In his profession Dr. Cole attained the highest position. In 1860 the Ohio College of Dental Surgery at Cincinnati conferred on him the honorary degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery.

He married in 1847 Mary P. Finney, daughter of Rev. George W. Finney of Newburyport, Mass. Three sons and two daughters live to perpetuate his name.

His name is also connected with the progress of San Francisco, for he was, in the early days of the growth of that city, one of the proprietors of the Mission Road, was also a member of the First Vigilance Committees. He was one of the twelve original proprietors and owners of the present Southern Pacific ferry and local railroad system, selling out his rights at the time the great corporation became interested here.

From 1878 to 1887 he was one of the Board of Directors of the Oakland Bank of Savings, and he was repeatedly urged to accept the nomination for Mayor of this city. He always declined, his private reason being that he would have to sign the liquor licenses, and as he was a total abstainer, this would jar against his principles.

His illness dates from about three years ago when he first became afflicted with a partial paralysis. Since then he slowly but surely got worse and on Wednesday last it was evident that the end was nigh. He retained consciousness almost to the last, and on Sunday morning last summoned all the members of his family to his bedside and bade them farewell.

No arrangements have yet been made regarding the funeral, but it is thought that it will not be in charge of the Masons, but from the church. A notice regarding it will be issued later.

THE ARMY TRIUMPHANT.

The District Attorney Declines to Issue Complaints.

Nothing daunted by their prison experience of the night before, the Salvation Army came out more enthusiastic than ever yesterday evening, and in the ranks, in addition to the officers, marched a number of the female soldiers. The tambourines clashed, the cornet twanged, and the drum banged with such clamor that a crowd, expecting something lively would occur, began to follow. As the procession moved up Broadway this crowd grew to such numbers that at last the passage of the cable cars was impeded. Officer Curtis thought it about time to interfere, and, stepping to the center of the street, he arrested Mrs. O. G. Edwards, Miss C. Lour, and Mrs. N. Wellis and marched them to the City Prison, where, like their brethren the night before, they were charged with obstructing the streets and were released on depositing $20 bail each.

This morning the charges against them and the four officers, brought into court yesterday, were dropped for the District Attorney's office refused to issue any complaints. The Salvationists therefor left the City Hall in triumph and the War Cry will in its next issue tell the tale of their persecution and their glorious victory.

Chief Tompkins is very wroth at the outcome of the cases. He says that the army was undoubtedly obstructing the streets, but the District Attorney Deputies

MARTIN OR JENSEN?

Alameda Argus.

It will be strange, indeed, if any considerable number of the voters of Alameda are found opposing one of their own townsmen for an important office—opposing the office coming to Alameda, where it should rightfully come, and where it will be of great advantage to this town—and sending it up off beyond Haywards to a man in nowise fit to have it. Mr. Martin has been one of the most active and level-headed Supervisor this district ever had. He has kept a better eye upon the country districts than even the Supervisors who came from them used to. We venture the assertion that there is not a man in this county who knows its roads as well as he. In his hands the interests of the county have never suffered. There can be no reasonable objection to him, while to his opponent there are many, especially so far as Alameda is concerned. Jensen improved the occasion when he was last in office to gerrymander this county in a manner more outrageous than that which was recently practiced on Congressman McKinley of Ohio, and which is recognized as a national outrage, and will likely be the means of legislation to prevent such proceedings in the future. This act was done not only in defiance of the then Supervisor from this district, Mr. Molloy, but in marked disregard of the wishes of a deputation from this town, who protested in the name of Alameda's citizens. The aim of this move was to deprive Alameda of any Supervisor. If Jensen is now elected, the object will be accomplished. How can any resident of Alameda conscientiously assist in bringing about such a state of affairs? How can any Alamedan, with proper pride in his town and due regard for its welfare, assist in rewarding its worst enemy? We do not believe there are many such. D. W. Martin ought to go out of Alameda with a majority that will forever discourage any such sharp tactics as this man Jensen has been guilty of.

THE FAIRS.

The Amusement Committees Arrange Pleasant Programmes.

The special musical programme presented at the St. Francis de Sales fair last night was very successful, and tended to make the entertainment more pleasant than ever. It consisted of "Annie Laurie," by Miss Hempstead, a guitar solo by Miss Priest, and a tenor solo, "Love's Request," by Mr. Echlin. Another similar programme has been arranged for tonight, and is sure to attract a good attendance.

The voting competitions have settled down steadily, and in the contest as to who is the most popular member of the Young Men's Institute, George Smith is far ahead. Some of the others will come up with a rush, though, at the last moment, and there will be an exciting finish.

J. T. Kane and S. J. Autone presented their interesting contortionist act again last night at the St. Joseph's Portuguese fair in Cavalry Hall, and the programme was furthered by a comic dialogue by Messrs. Corrigan, Kane, Autone and Folks. For tonight another musical entertainment has been arranged, and will include a piano and violin duet by Mrs. Hammond and Dr. Maher.

The fair is doing well in every line, the prize selling and the raffling being very good. A number of the small prizes are now raffled off each evening.

POSTAGE STAMPS

Can Be Bought in any Quantity Desired at Seventh Street and Broadway.

Osgood Bros., the druggists on the northeast corner of Seventh street and Broadway, have been appointed stamp agents by the postal department at Washington, and will henceforth keep all denominations of postage stamps in considerable quantities, as well as postal cards, stamped wrappers and envelopes, and, in fact, all the postal supplies. This appointment was secured through the energy of Postmaster Bishop and will be a material boon to the business community, who can procure the stamps they need at the most central part of the city.

A Perfect Defense.

Exchange.

There is a country store in Arkansas which is defended by a spring-gun. The gun has caused the death of seven different robbers in the last four years, killing two at once one night last week. The owner of the store is out in a local paper advising the fraternity to tackle something else—a stage or railroad train.

A GLORIOUS SURPRISE!

YET ACTUALLY TRUE.

Fine Complexions Positively Obtained by Madame A. Ruppert's World Renowned Face Bleach.

There has been such positive evidence of the efficacy of Mme. A. Ruppert's Face Bleach that it is unnecessary to offer further proof. There is but one article indorsed by members of the Board of Health, who use it in their own families as a skin tonic. Mme. Ruppert is candid; no imaginative cures, no misrepresentations, no testimonials from people hired for that purpose. Mme. Ruppert is the soul of honor; would not tamper with such a delicate thing as a lady's face unless she was positive of its cure. FACE BLEACH. There is but one genuine, and if it were not a grand article there would not be so many imitations; they follow, but do not succeed in the great and glorious work that Mme. Ruppert's Face Bleach does. Freckles removed, tan, sunburn, oily skins, excessive redness of nose and face, discolorations of every kind, eruptions of no matter how long standing, quickly disappear after using Face Bleach. Its action is to open and cleanse the pores, allowing all impure matter to exude, thereby leaving the skin as fresh as in infancy. Do not fear, Mme. Ruppert guarantees the public; she uses no lead, arsenic, bismuth, etc. Send 4 cents for valuable ideas. The Genuine WORLD RENOWNED FACE BLEACH sent to any address on receipt of price—a bottle, $1; or three bottles, which are usually required to clear the skin, $5.

THE FIELD OF SPORT.

The Columbia Club Will Purchase New Boats.

RACES OF THE OAKLAND CANOE CLUB.

The Umpire Thinks the Colonels Will Lead in the Race for the Pennant Next Sunday.

The members of the Columbia Rowing Club are going to purchase a complete outfit of new boats in the near future. They propose to expend $650 in the purchase of boats in the East. The club already has raised the necessary funds. The old boats will be sold to the Alameda Boat Club.

Next Sunday will be a great day for the canoeists. The Oakland Canoe Club will hold their regular quarterly race for the handsome Mayrisch badge. There is considerable rivalry among the members and great preparations are being made for the race.

Colonel Robinson, umpire, politician, baseball manager and general hustler, has sprung his old chestnut this week to the effect that the Colonels are sure to win the pennant. That's what Captain O'Neill says. "The Umpire," the man who pretends to know more about baseball than any man on earth, makes a few suggestions to the boys about batting. Following will be found a resume of the sporting events of the week.

THE UMPIRE.

Colonel Robinson as an Umpire Is Not a Success.

Charley Isaacson is still without employment in the baseball line. He has many friends in the baseball fraternity, and will never want for recommendations.

The Eastern club of "All Californias" players is billed to open the season on Thanksgiving Day at the Haight street park. No dates have been fixed for Oakland, as yet.

Candillion has been placed at the head of the batting list of the Oaklands, and great work is he doing as the leader at the bat. Cant never says can't, but tries, and he, generally, succeeds.

Colonel Cobb lost his first game of the last thirteen he pitched, Sunday morning, at the Oakland grounds. It almost broke his heart for he expected to make a clean record of twenty games without a loss. By the way, what an elegant game this man Cobb can pitch when he tries.

Colonel Robinson informs me that Borchers will not pitch the season out for Sacramento. He is suspended by Stockton, and a reserved player of the Spokane nine. The Colonel knows what he is talking about. Borchers has been a disgrace to baseball in this State.

Charley Dooley has improved greatly in his batting of late, and is now depended upon as one of the sluggers for the Colonel. By looking at him, no one would ever believe that, in his young days, Charley was an undertaker. Perhaps, that is why he looks so solemn, at times.

Benjamin Hill, who played with the Oaklands a short time this season, is now playing with an amateur Suisun nine. Robinson imported Hill, and for a short time he played fair ball. After he was released from Oakland he played some excellent games with the 'Friscos. Better player he is than some of those Stockton men.

Colonel Robinson informs me that next Sunday night will see the Colonels in the lead in the race for the pennant. 'Frisco and Oakland are now tied, but Colonel Tom says that such will not be the case at the end of the week. He claims that he has a great advantage over the boys across the bay this week, for the reason that they are compelled to go abroad, while his team will remain at home.

Kid Carsey did a very neat piece of work last Sunday in shutting the 'Friscos out without a run. Indeed, the good work just came in time, for Colonel Robinson was commencing to weary of Carsey's poor pitching, and had almost despaired of winning any more games with the youngster in the box. His confidence in Carsey has been renewed by his work of Sunday. Now it is Twirler Shaw's turn to distinguish himself.

The Oakland grounds were handsomely patronized last Sunday morning. The cranks, however, had but little opportunity to use their calliopes, so they kept them in their pockets. In the afternoon at the Haight street park the boys made up for lost time and how they did make noise when the Colonels scored two runs. Finn's friends were armed with fish horns, but only one solitary man in the grand stand dared to give a blast. It was the Colonels' day.

Captain O'Neill is authority for the statement that the Oaklands will win the pennant without a doubt. Make your bets accordingly—that is, if you are willing to take his judgment in the matter. As for myself, I am not betting this year, for the reason that the 'Friscos and the Oaklands keep too close together in the race. Managers are not interesting themselves in baseball for nothing. Close games and a fight for first place draw large gates. But don't accept the inference from this that I mean to suggest that some games are faked, for such is not my opinion.

Roscoe Coughlin is not forgotten in the East. In compiling the records of the pitchers of the National League this year his name is found among the number. He pitched ten games for the Chicago Club, four of which were victories and six defeats. He lost two to Brooklyn, and one each to Boston and New York. With Cincinnati and Cleveland he came out even, winning one and losing one each. He won both games he pitched in against Pittsburg, and ex-Colonel Colonel Coughlin beat the Oaklands on their own grounds, and Colonel Tom smiled a sickly smile. I notice that Coughlin still lingers on this side of the bay. Wherefore, Roscoe, do you tarry here?

It is now an assured thing that Stockton will not be in the league next season. I stated last week that I was of the opinion that Tip O'Neill's proposition to take charge of the nine was all talk, so it was. The managers of the concern are losing money every day, but they can't give up the ghost for the reason that they have deposited with the Secretary of the California League a certified check for $2 500 and an agreement to the effect that it shall be forfeited unless the managers carry the team through the season. That's why the team has not disbanded long since. Certain it is that Harris will win his play this year and get San Jose in the league for next season. I do not believe that the league will be extended any further than San Jose.

Did you see the charity game of baseball? If not, you really missed a treat, because Colonel Tom acted the role of an umpire. It was sport for the cranks, but hard on the society chaps, who were anxious to complete the game. Great is the Colonel in all baseball matters, but when it comes to umpiring—well, he's not in it. See here, Colonel, I thought you knew a foul when you saw it. How about balls and strikes? However, the decisions of the Colonel were received good naturedly, and he succeeded in making the boys play a twelve-inning game. Everybody was satisfied, and no one was better satisfied with the work of the Colonel than the Colonel himself. When society and charity both call upon the manager he never shirks his duty.

THE UMPIRE.

WHEEL WHIRLS.

Notes Which Are Intended to Interest the Bikers.

Weaver, the "across the continent cyc'er," and W. S. Doane will return East via the isthmus.

Rowe & Barr passed through Council Bluffs, Ia., on the 3d inst. They state that the roads are in very poor condition, and that they are not able to cover more than fifty miles a day.

Every man can carry his own road along with him now, if we are to believe the report that an Eastern cyclist has invented a wheel that carries, lays down, and picks up its own track.

Mr. Seaver must have retired from the cycling world, for he has not been seen around his favorite haunts for quite a while.

The new officers of the California Division League of American Wheelmen for 1890-91 are as follows: Chief Consul, Thos. L. Hill, San Francisco; Vice Consul, Arthur C. McKenney, San Jose; Secretary-Treasurer, Oswald Granicher, San Jose; Representatives at large, Fred C. Clift, Oakland; C. C. Moore, Stockton; Fred Russ Cook, San Francisco; A. C. McKenney, San Jose.

Quite a number of the local wheelmen went to Haywards on Sunday last, also another crowd was seen pedaling towards Taylor's Paper Mills.

At the Pennsylvania Division League of American Wheelmen's annual meeting that was held in Philadelphia on the 3d and 4th inst., it was decided that the above division should hold annually the following races, 25 mile, 10 mile, ¼, ordinary ¼ mile safety, also 1, 2 and 5 mile track races.

In the league Bulletin of the 3d inst., there is quite an interesting article about the Pneumatic Tired Wheel, and it is worth reading.

Messrs. Young, Howe and Buchman of the San Francisco Bicycle Club are on a week's tour in the southern part of the State.

CANOE RIPPLES.

A Great Race for the Mayrisch Badge Next Sunday.

The Oakland Canoe Club will hold its regular quarterly race for the Mayrisch badge on the estuary next Sunday afternoon. The members of the club are making great preparations for the event and there appears to be considerable rivalry for honors. This race is open to all and no odds are given to any. The best boat takes the race and the owner holds the handsome badge until it is won by another canoe. There is going to be a very lively contest between the Mystic, under command of Commodore Blow, and the Goat, under command of George H. Warder. Both these gentlemen claim that their boats are superior racers, and for a long time there has been a great deal of good natured rivalry between them. Next Sunday will decide which is the better boat. The Commodore has been quietly arranging his rigging during the week and proposes to have the Mystic in first-class condition Sunday. Mr. Warder, however, is not forgetting his speedy little canoe. He too is doing a little overhauling, and there is Al Blow, who might push the Gypsy in ahead of them all. A great little sailer is this young man and he can give some of the old boys a few points on how to handle a canoe. Altogether it will be a great day for the canoeists.

THE COLUMBIA ROWERS.

The Club Will Purchase a Number of New Boats.

The Columbia Rowing Club is still in existence. Although for years the club has not held a regatta, still the members take an interest in the affairs of the organization just to keep it going. And they pay their dues and always have a surplus in the treasury. But few of the members visit the clubrooms at the foot of Alice street during the week. On a Sunday morning some of the members may be seen enjoying a little exercise. A few nights since the club held a meeting and decided that the boats now in use at the clubhouse have seen their best days, and it was decided to secure an entirely new outfit. But how to do this was the question that bothered them. It was finally decided to open a subscription list and let the members of the club subscribe such sums as they desired. The first man who put his name down subscribed $20, and the others followed his example, until now the subscriptions amount to $375. There is a surplus in the treasury of $300. The club will purchase six new boats, which are estimated to cost $650. The boats will be purchased in the East and will be shipped around the Horn in order to save freight expense. The boats will not be here for six months. When they arrive the old boats will be sold to the Alameda Boat Club.

WEDNESDAY.....OCTOBER 15, 1890

McKenna's Address.

Representative McKenna was handsomely welcomed back to Oakland last night. The high esteem in which he is held was shown by the enthusiasm of the great gathering assembled. His address, of which we give a very full report, is an admirable exposition of the condition of National, State and local interests, in so far as they are concerned with the work of Congress. It will repay perusal. The speaker touched modestly on the large appropriations which he has secured in each succeeding Congress of which he has been a member, and he explained the difficulty of obtaining appropriations of any sort. The especial difficulty of securing appropriations for public buildings were touched upon in connection with the Oakland Postoffice bill, and the assurance was given that, if it is possible to pass the bill, it will be done, perhaps, before the present Congress comes to an end.

The success of Mr. McKenna in securing the appropriation for a postoffice building in Sacramento, gives us every confidence in his ability to do as much for Oakland, and of one thing we are certain that if Mr. McKenna cannot get the appropriation no other man to be found within the limits of the Third District, can do the business. It seems scarcely worth while to say these things, for they are already sufficiently well known to the people of the district. There is no doubt whatever of Mr. McKenna's re-election, and it is only a question of his majority. It would be a proper testimony to our representative's high ability and faithful services should we send him back on the top of the biggest vote he has ever yet been given.

Pond's Pledges.

The Fresno Budget recalls some political history, which is in point, now that the Democrats are laboriously denying, that Buckley had any part in the nomination of Pond. The writer, who was present at the San Jose Convention, after describing the first and second indecisive ballots and the adjournment until the following day, goes on to say:

Upon the re-assembling of the convention the next day, the third ballot was ordered, and resulted as follows: Paulsell 21, English 153, Coleman 228, Pond 230. In this ballot Mr. Pond's country following only increased one vote, and amounted to 196, while fourteen more of the San Francisco delegation, or thirty-four in all, were "stuffed" from the other candidates to Pond in order to keep him in the lead and coax the country delegates on. Right here was the turning point in the fight. Mr. Buckley, whose absolute control of the 143 votes cast by the San Francisco delegation has not even been questioned by the most ardent supporter and apologist of Mr. Pond, could have sent Mr. Coleman's stock up to 281 on the third ballot, and made him a sure winner on the fourth, had he so desired. The blind boss did not desire the nomination of Mr. Coleman, neither did he want Mr. English or Mr. Paulsell. He had determined to nominate Pond, and he did it. On the fourth ballot there was a gradual drift of delegates from Paulsell and English to Pond, but while there was yet no indication of a choice being reached on this ballot, and while there were eight counties to be called before San Francisco was reached, Mr. Buckley's spokesman in that delegation jumped up on his chair and cried out at the top of his voice, "San Francisco gives her solid 143 votes to Pond!" An order was at an end for the space of ten or fifteen minutes, but the clerks were finally permitted to complete the roll-call of counties and record the vote. The result of the fourth ballot was: Paulsell, 1; English, 60; Coleman, 138; Pond, 427. Mr. Pond received 236 votes, or 32 less than were required to nominate him from the State outside of San Francisco, and the delegation of the boss gave him 43 more.

These are the facts which are in danger of being forgotten or obscured by the protests and denials of Pond's friends. That he owes his nomination to Buckley there can be no doubt, and the people will do well to view in the light of that fact the pledge he makes to run the State Government on a 45 cent basis. The pledges which he made to Buckley to secure the nomination are not made public, but they have a prior claim and are more likely to be observed.

THE English journalist who asked Robert P. Porter how it was that an Englishman (Porter) could fail to believe in free trade, notwithstanding his residence in the United States, elicited a reply which states the case very briefly:

I don't think that my being an Englishman had much to do with it one way or the other. I have seen the benefits of protection all over the country. In the Western States it has dotted the prairies with prosperous centers of industries, in the Eastern States it has built up immense industries. Under this system we are rapidly becoming the first manufacturing, as well as the first agricultural nation on earth, and when our new Shipping bill becomes a law, we shall struggle hard to reach the top as a commercial nation. Then, when I was a young man I was a great student of Cobden and of Bright's speeches, and reading these strengthened my belief in protection, when I saw how little their glowing promises were realized,

The Englishman did not ask any more questions.

JAMES ALEXANDER DOWIE, the queer miracle worker, who once pestered Oakland with the story of his thaumaturgy, is now pursuing his healing mission in Illinois, and swears he has cured two Chicago editors. He has not, however, cured them of being Chicago editors. They have that disease worse than before.

THE Democratic nominees in San Francisco are beginning to figure out where they will get off, and the best of them have decided that the place to get off is right here. In addition to the numerous declinations already received, there are rumors that several others are to come.

THE narrow margin between danger and safety in the big cities was illustrated the other day in London, when the employes of the gas company, which supplies three-fourths of London with light, threatened to strike. A strike meant darkness at night in three-fourths of the city, and, leaving business considerations out of the question, darkness meant practical immunity for crime. As London always contains a large population of the dangerous classes, the government felt called on to interfere and placed a thousand soldiers at the service of the company, to be put to work at making gas, should a strike occur. On hearing of this action the men abandoned their idea of striking. Such interference by a government with the rights of organized labor savors more of despotism than of constitutional government, but there is no doubt that there was grave danger and the authorities were frightened.

"THIS is a Democratic year." So we have been told in copious phrase and painful reiteration by the Democratic press, but the fact that their ratification meeting in San Francisco last night was complete fizzle, and had to be dismissed, does not look as if the people shared their confidence. Contrast the Democratic fizzle with the big reception given Markham and Morrow.

CURRENT POLITICS.

Markham and Morrow were given a magnificent reception in San Francisco last night.

Senator Stanford was given a warm welcome yesterday at Auburn and at Sacramento as he passed through on his way to the bay.

The Democratic ratification meeting called for last night in San Francisco was a complete fizzle and had to be dismissed. Scarcely any of the nominees on the municipal ticket appeared, and the audience was of the slimmest sort.

The appointment of Charles A. Garter as United States District Attorney, vice Carey, resigned, was announced yesterday. Garter has been an applicant for the position from the advent of the Harrison regime. He filed his application early, and was indorsed by Senator Stanford and a host of California Republicans.

The New York Times interviewed a prominent dealer in sheet lead upon the subject of the new tariff. He denounced it bitterly, and told the reporter that it would bear heavily upon the consumer, as he and other dealers would be compelled to raise the price of sheet lead. The editor saw nothing funny in the interview, but the people did the next day when it was pointed out that the much-berated bill had reduced the duty on sheet lead—Chronicle.

BERKELEY ROUSED.

The Republicans Have an Enthusiastic Whoop-up.

W. R. DAVIS ON THE JUDICIAL TICKET.

The Democrats Have a Hard Time Begging for Money—Voters Who Have Not Registered Yet.

BERKELEY, October 15th.

Odd Fellows' Hall was filled last evening to its utmost capacity on the occasion of the Republican ratification meeting. George D. Metcalf acted as President of the meeting, and after a few remarks introduced the Hon. H. C. Dibble of San Francisco, who addressed the meeting for half an hour on the political issues of the day. Captain F. W. Hunt of Oakland, a late convert to the Republican ranks, spoke for a short time. His remarks were witty and to the point and occasioned much applause. He was ashamed of the Democratic party. They had principles, but never lived up to them, and he was glad that even at his age he had joined the party that had done something for the country.

District Attorney Reed was then introduced, and after making a few remarks on the general political aspect, called attention to the county candidates, individually, most of whom were present. Mr. Metcalf then introduced the Hon. W. R. Davis, of Oakland, who delivered one of the most eloquent addresses ever heard in the town of Berkeley, and which drew repeated applause from the audience. His remarks on the present so-called "non-partisan judiciary" ticket were clear, comprehensive and gratifying to every Republican. He presented many facts—that Judge Gibson had never before been refused a nomination by the Republican party, that he had been defeated several times when nominated, that he had been defeated fairly in an intelligent convention last month, and, practicallly, that he had been an excellent Republican while he could use the party for his own benefit. Mr. Davis stated that he was not opposed to taking the judiciary nominations out of politics, but showed conclusively that the present 'non-partisan ticket" was a burlesque on its name—one candidate being a radical Democrat who had served his party with his whole heart for years, and the other a pronounced Republican who had been fairly defeated and now sought to place himself in office by "bolting" the party which had supported him for years.

Mr. Davis's opinion was that a non-partizan judiciary movement should be brought up before the regular party conventions had been held. His remarks were not bitter or abusive in the least, but fair and impartial, and by the unanimous applause which he received those present were of the same opinion.

The Fifth Regiment Band and the University Glee Club furnished music and were highly appreciated. The latter sang several campaign songs which caused great applause.

Three cheers were finally given for the State, Congressional and county Republican ticket, after which the meeting adjourned, everyone having been fully paid for attending the meeting.

TOPICS OF THE TOWN.

Republicans Magnanimously Help Out the Poor Democrats.

BERKELEY, October 15th.

Louis Gottshall is having the western addition to his block newly painted inside.

George Dunning is thinking of opening a furniture store in the Weimer block.

Mrs. A. C. Blossom, of Stockton, is visiting Mrs. H. A. Nelson, of North Berkeley.

Miss Nellie Kenney, of San Francisco, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Mary Kenney, of this place, for a few weeks.

The workmen on Haste street broke a water pipe yesterday afternoon. One was also broken on Durant avenue.

There was a grand display of fireworks last evening, and several large bonfires were built in different parts of the town.

John Pape and James Kenney put up the forty foot Republican flag across Shattuck avenue at Berkeley station yesterday afternoon.

George Pape shipped two carloads of material yesterday from his mill to Robert Smilie, at Pinole, for whom he is furnishing mill work for a large building.

The boys of the old Berkeley Theatrical Club will present two farces early next month. The name of one is Servants by Legacy, the other The Irish Tutor.

There are three candidates for Justice of the Peace for this end of town: L. H. Long, Republican; W. T. Welcker, Democrat, and W. H. Bone, Prohibitionist. The American Party have not yet made nominations for the offices mentioned.

It is estimated that there are yet about fifty voters in this end of town who have not been registered. Next Saturday is the last day on which persons can become registered, and the registration office will be kept open later on the evening of that day.

There have been but few arrests of hunters lately. Last Monday Constable Fonzo made one arrest for that offense. The unlucky man was from San Francisco, and put up $10 bail, which was forfeited yesterday, as he did not appear to answer to the charge against him.

A forty-ton steam roller was sent out here yesterday afternoon by the Oakland Paving Company to roll the macadam on Allston way. There was danger of the Shattuck avenue bridge giving away under such a heavy load, and the machine, after much difficulty, was hauled up Bancroft way by teams.

A Democratic subscription list is being circulated in the town to help defray the expenses of the ratification meeting to be held next Saturday evening in the Odd Fellows' Hall. There are so few Democrats in this end of town that a number of Republicans have put down their names for different amounts to help the Democrats out.

There are about fifty students who will vote in this town at the next election. For the first time in the existence of the University, about one-half are Democrats. Heretofore, the large majority were Republicans. The class that graduated last June was strongly Republican, while in the class that entered this fall there are quite a number of Democrats—thus the change.

AMONG THE THINKERS.

Something of the Inner Life of the University of California.

BERKELEY, October 15, 1890.

Lincoln Hutchinson, '89, is in business in Los Angeles.

Herbert Dyer, '90, is now in the beet sugar business.

Harry Wilson, '90, is in the lumber business in San Francisco.

Rumors are rife that the faculty are investigating the hazing of last Wednesday night.

The U. C. baseball team defeated the Pilsters of San Francisco, Saturday, by a score of 7 to 0.

It is rumored that Adolph Sommer, assistant in the chemical department, will shortly resign.

At the meeting of the Durant Neolean Society Friday evening, Albert Pait, '92, was elected Secretary.

Todd, '91, and Van Dyke, '93, have recovered from their injuries received in the football game last Wednesday.

Wright, '89, has returned to Berkeley, and will accept a position in the chemical department of the University.

George Schafer, '92, returned from Modesto yesterday, where he has been sojourning for several months.

When the Chemistry building is completed South Hall, which is fireproof, will be entirely devoted museums.

Miss Agnes Craig, '91, has been added to the editorial staff of the Occident. Fairbanks and Lloyd, '92, have been added to the manager's staff.

Last night there was a grand Republican rally in Berkeley, at Odd Fellows' Hall. The campaign songs were exceptionally good, the University Glee Club distinguishing itself, as usual. A number of the songs which they sang were composed by one of the students especially for the occasion. The club was heartily applauded and responded to several encores. The members of the club are Juilliard, Bentley, Somers, Gunnison, and Carroll. There are three vacancies, which will be filled shortly.

IN LIVERMORE.

Business Locations in Demand and Politics Booming.

LOMS, October 15th.

Mr. Olsen was buried today from the family residence on Fairview street.

Constant applications are being made to rent the newly constructed business buildings.

The Republicans are also making preparations for a big time next Tuesday evening, in Arcade Hall. A committee of five has been appointed on arrangements.

The Prohibitionists of town are making considerable preparation to greet Messrs. Meads and Sheahan Thursday evening, at Lorin Hall. The quartet choir of Park Church will sing. One thousand dodgers will be distributed and a bonfire built.

The Abt Club is meeting about at private residences now. There was a large attendance at Mr. Morin's Monday evening, and an enjoyable evening passed. It was the sense of the club to give another of its successful entertainments. The club intends to pay off all indebtedness before it adjourns.

IN A BAD PLACE.

Golden Gate Is Not Pleased With a Conspicuous Washhouse.

GOLDEN GATE, October 15th.

Miss Mattie Evans has gone to Sacramento to visit for a few weeks.

A Chinese washhouse has been opened near San Pablo avenue on Railroad avenue. The place is already quite an ornament to the town, considering that the dirty establishment can be seen plainly from every passing train.

1607 Washington St., St. Louis, Mo., May 12, 1890.

On the night of April 12, I lost the use of my eyes, and I used all sorts of remedies with no good result. Pond's Extract was recommended to me and I used it. To-day I am well and can see as well as ever. I can gladly recommend it to parties having sore or inflamed eyes. P. H. ZWICKER.

NATURAL GAS.

Roaring Wells North of Lake Merritt—Gas in Abundance.

The wildest kind of excitement has created north of Oakland by discovery of natural gas in abundance on one of the ranches north of Lake Merritt. The gas vein was discovered while a farmer was boring an artesian well on his property, and when ignited the flame is over 80 feet high and burns with a roar that can be heard for miles. The well has been plugged and a number of others are being bored by way of experiment. Yesterday when the news reached Oakland a rush was made for the field and never since the gold excitement has there been such an exodus. This afternoon the neighborhood of the well resembls a tented army field and hundreds of derricks have been erected already in hopes of striking gas in large quantity. Geologists who have examined the ground say it abounds in petroleum and no doubt the discovery is a valuable one.

To-day thirty more men with their families went to the head of Lake Merritt and the People's Express and Transfer Company is having a busy day attending to their moving. Besides their general express and transfer business they make a specialty of checking baggage at your home to all parts of the world. Parties desiring to go to the new gas wells can summon a wagon through telephone 326, or at the office 423 Tenth street. A new well will be fired to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

SOMETHING TO REMEMBER.

When You Move See That You Consult The Whitney Company

Since its consolidation as one general express company the management of the Whitney and Oakland Transfer Company has perfected the express business wonderfully. Peculiarly constituted wagons have been built for hauling furniture and bulky articles, requiring care in handling, and a very important matter for travellers to bear in mind is that trunks and baggage are checked directly at their door for all parts of the United States thus avoiding the confusion at the wharf or depot. The company does a general express andtransfer business and their office is at 422 Ninth street east side of Broadway.

POLITICAL MUD.

False and Malicious Attack Upon Robert S. Leckie.

HE MAKES A DIGNIFIED REJOINDER.

Meeting of Colored Republicans — The Democrats Will Gather on Monday Night—The Haywards Hurrah.

R. S. Leckie, the Republican candidate for Assessor, was interviewed today in reference to the charges made in a morning contemporary, that he had won large sums of money from County Clerk Boardman at the gaming table. He said:

"The statements made in the Times this morning are absolutely and unqualifiedly false, and are made for political purposes only. When Charles T. Boardman makes the accusation (which he will not) it is time for me to make a defense."

Mr. Leckie asked that a statement be obtained from Mr. Boardman, feeling certain that it will fully confirm what he says. Mr. Boardman is so ill that the resident physician at the private hospital where he is lying declined to admit any person to see him. Even the members of his family are excluded.

COLORED VOTERS.

Two Enthusiastic Meetings of Rival Factions Last Evening.

The American Citizens' Equal Rights Association met again last night. W. F. Delainey presided. About twenty new names were added to the club roll, making a membership of over four hundred. The ward canvassers reported progress in the several wards of the city. The Executive Committee was instructed to invite some of the Republican county candidates to address the colored voters at their next meeting. A number of speeches were made by members of the association and the meeting adjourned until next Tuesday evening.

The organization known as the Colored Republicans met last night in Justice Ogden's courtroom. President Holland presided. In calling the meeting to order, the Chairman said he was much gratified with the success which had attended their organization. There was a good deal of howling on the part of the opposition colored men, but it only showed that their political antagonists saw that they meant business and would accomplish something. Speeches were made by a number of the members and an executive committee of seven was appointed as follows: J. K. Dickinson, John Butler, W. N. Sanderson, William Morris, W. J. Edmunds, John Landoway and George Flood. It was decided to accept the invitation of the Ingalls Republican Club to attend the mass meeting to be held at the new wigwam in San Francisco on October 27th.

THE REPUBLICANS.

The Big Meeting at Haywards — One at Alameda—Registration.

The mass meeting at Haywards tonight will attract a large gathering of Oaklanders, who will go down on the special train with the Republican Alliance, leaving the foot of Broadway at 6 o'clock. Hon. Joseph McKenna and William Simpson, candidate for the Senate in the Eighteenth District, will be the principal speakers. At the conclusion of the meeting a banquet will be given the Alliance by their admirers in Haywards.

On the 23d a meeting will be held in the Park Opera House, Alameda, at which W. R. Davis and possibly W. H. Jordan will be the speakers.

The Republican County Committee put a registration clerk on the early morning narrow gauge boats yesterday and as a result twenty-five persons were registered. Today the clerk traveled on the broad gauge line with as good results. It has been found that notwithstanding the precaution taken by both parties and the newspapers, many persons have not yet registered.

THE DEMOCRATS.

Their Big Meeting Next Monday—The Ticket to be Completed Tonight.

The Democrats are making big preparations for the demonstration to be held in this city Monday night. Mayor Pond, of San Francisco, the Democratic candidate for Governor, and a number of others will speak at the Oakland Theater.

Tonight the Executive Committee of the Democratic County Committee will hold another meeting, at which an attempt will be made to fill up the holes in the county ticket. There are only two vacancies now and these will be filled tonight. One of the missing links is a candidate for the Assembly in the Fifty-third district.

Prohibitionists.

A good sized audience gathered at Prohibition Headquarters last night to hear an address by Professor S. P. Meads, the Prohibition candidate for County Superintendent of Schools, on the destruction of the liquor traffic. The sweet wine clause of the McKinley Tariff bill was condemned as also was Colonel Markham, because he takes such pains to deny any temperance work in the splendid fight at Pasadena made for prohibition. Mayor Pond was also condemned for being a liquor dealer.

An American Assemblyman.

A. A. Williamson, a well known West Oakland resident and a veteran of the Mexican war, will probably be nominated by the American Assembly District Convention, to run against E. S. Culver, the Republican nominee.

IN THE LEAFY ALAMEDA.

Two Hearts Joined By the Spirits, But Sundered By the Courts.

Sudden Death of a Printer—Another Chapter In the Troubles of Brakeman Jackson—The Cows Must Go.

ALAMEDA, October 15, 1890.

Matters pertaining to the Fire Department will be considered at the meeting of the City Trustees tomorrow evening.

A. R. Baum, the Democratic candidate for the Assembly in the Fifty-second District, went to San Leandro and vicinity this morning.

The property owners on Central avenue will make a big "kick" against the granting of a franchise allowing any kind of a street railroad operated on it. They regard this avenue as the finest in the city, and don't wish it disfigured by railroad tracks. Two applications for franchises are now pending before the City Trustees, but it is not likely that either will be favorably acted upon.

A much-desired improvement is being made at the corner of Santa Clara avenue and Eighth (Prospect) street. For years the fence at this point has projected out on the sidewalk, rendering the latter's improvement impossible, and injuring the neighborhood in consequence. Now the owner, Mr. Cohen, is setting in his fence, and the neighbors are greatly rejoicing thereat.

Mrs. Damrell was prostrated yesterday afternoon when she went into an outhouse in the rear of her dwelling on Fifteenth street, and saw the dead body of her husband, Daniel Damrell. Deceased had been troubled with heart disease and had died without warning. He was 67 years of age and a native of Maine. He came to this State at an early day, and for twenty-five years was employed in the composing room of the San Francisco Alta. He leaves a widow, but no children. He had lived in Alameda three years.

At the meeting of the Board of Health last evening, Health Officer McLean reported that seventeen deaths had occurred during the month of September. This gives a monthly death rate of fifteen per thousand in an estimated population of 11,250. Four cases of diphtheria have been reported so far this month, two proving fatal. The deaths occurred in the family of John Ganey, corner of Twenty-third street and San Antonio avenue, and are attributed to the use of impure surface well water. It was decided to send a sample of the water to the State Analyst at Berkeley for examination. Three dairies were reported to exist in Alameda in violation of the city ordinance. They belong to Alexander Innes, Mr. Rogers, and Mrs. Wunnenburg. Innes was allowed until the 17th inst. to move his dairies, Rogers until the 21st, and Mrs. Wunnenburg has requested Sanitary Inspector Sebulte to sell her cows.

The railroad company has an order to the effect that no one is allowed to ride on the back platform of its trains on the broad gauge road. The brakemen, whose duty it is to enforce it, find much difficulty in doing so, and frequently get into a row. Brakeman Jackson, the musical prodigy, is very zealous in performing his duty, and not long ago, because a Chinaman refused to go inside the car at his bidding, took the Mongolian's hat and threw it away. The Chinaman went to Superintendent Wilder's office and made a big row, and finally got the value of his hat. Last evening Brakeman Jackson had another unpleasant experience. Johnnie Brock, a well known young man about town, was riding on the platform, when Jackson requested him to go in. Brock refused to go in, and Jackson pulled the bell cord, and, after a tussle, ejected the obstreperous Brock. When the train started, Brock jumped on, and for the second time the train was stopped and Brock was put off. He again got on the train, and threatened to keep up the proceedings all evening, when Conductor Gaunce requested him to desist, and he did so.

Maria L. Foster has been granted a divorce from Charles H. Foster on the gound of willful desertion. Both parties are well known in Alameda, where they reside. Mr. Foster is at present superintending the erection of the new Masonic temple. Before becoming Mrs. Foster, the plaintiff was a widow named Lemon and the court allowed her to resume that name. She is a spiritualist and when Mr. Foster met her he was an agnostic. One day as the two were standing together, another woman, who professes to have mediumistic powers, somewhat surprised them both by announcing that some day the two would become husband and wife, as she saw the word "marriage" connecting them. Mr. Foster says that then he had not the slightest idea of even paying his attentions to Mrs. Lemon, but in three months' time, the prophecy of the so-called medium was fulfilled. They lived happily for a few weeks, when a disagreement arose and for the past year or more they have been living apart. But during the time that they lived together the wife convinced her agnostic husband that there was something in spiritualism and an investigation on his part made him yield to her belief. He is still a spiritualist, although he is again living a life of single blessedness.

CRAWFORD'S DENIAL.

There They Are on Both Sides of the Fence.

To the Editor of the Tribune—SIR: In my communication, published in Monday evening's TRIBUNE, occurred the following paragraph, concerning T. C. Crawford:

"In the coming election in this county it will be seen that the foreign voters are not so ignorant as to vote for a man as Superintendent of Schools, who, as alleged, belongs to an organization whose tendencies are antagonistic to the foreign element. Mr. Crawford will learn that the foreigner voter has intelligence enough to know that the public schools should be superintended by a man with a broad mind and without any prejudice whatever, so that he can do justice to the teachers and pupils who are under his care."

The Times next morning, after quoting the foregoing, made concerning it the following editorial comments and strictures:

"Mr. Crawford has publicly denied that he belongs to any such organization. Mr. Crawford is a gentleman of veracity, and neither THE TRIBUNE nor its correspondent, Mr. Kaufman (whoever he may be), has any right to repeat charges against him which he has denied as publicly and as positively as he has this charge."

Part of these editorial comments are true. Mr. Crawford has made public and very positive denial of the charge that he belonged to the Patriotic Order of Sons of America. And it is equally true that the veracity of a man of Mr. Crawford's pretensions and claims to all the virtues almost to the extent of a monopoly thereof, should be beyond question. But, unfortunately for Mr. Crawford and his advocate and supporter, the Times, Mr. Crawford's acknowledgement of membership is a matter of record, just as public and just as positive as his denial.

HERE IS CRAWFORD'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

The following is an extract from a communication published in the Oakland Times of Sunday, March 12, 1882, and in all the other Oakland dailies, during the candidacy of C. K. Robinson for Mayor, who was an active member of the Patriotic Order of Sons of America and was being hotly opposed on that ground by liberal and broad-minded voters.

Editor Times:—We, the undersigned, members of the Patriotic Order of Sons of America and citizens of Oakland, desire to refute the charges that have been made, that the order known as the Patriotic Sons of America, are taking any part whatever, as an order, in the present municipal election.

OAKLAND, March 10, 1882.

Here is one of CRAWFORD'S PUBLIC DENIALS of membership, from the published report of the City Democratic Convention of March 3, 1886:

"Before Mr. Crawford appeared upon the platform, James Neylan, a delegate from the first ward, arose and said: 'Before Mr. Crawford is finally declared a nominee, I deem it my duty to question him in regard to a certain matter. It has been openly charged that Mr. Crawford is particularly friendly to a certain race of people and prejudiced against another race. I shall call upon him to explain these charges before he can expect my support.'

Mr. Crawford here appeared upon the platform and said: "Mr. Chairman, with what am I charged?

Mr. Neylan—'You are charged with being a member of the Patriotic Sons of America—an order which would disfranchise my race, and shut them out forever from this land. Are you a member of that order?'

Mr. Crawford—(deliberately) I am not a member of any lodge of the Patriotic Sons of America.

Whether membership of a secret proscriptive political organization is a good and proper thing or not, is not the question at this moment. The question is whether the Times is correct or not in its statement that "neither THE TRIBUNE nor its correspondent (whoever he may be) has a right to question the veracity of the truly good Mr. Crawford."

DAVIE'S REJOINDER.

The American Has something To Say About the Dunbar Matter in the Board of Education.

EDITOR TRIBUNE—Dear Sir: I am exceedingly thankful to School Directors Clement and Fine for the impartial manner in which they conducted the examination of the witnesses who were brought before them last Monday evening. I feel it my duty to thank them for their kindness and fine sense of justice that was manifested in every word and action of theirs. I was very much annoyed and mortified at the uncalled for and ungentlemanly attack on my personal character by Morgan of the Third ward, a man who is almost an entire stranger to me, and having no opportunity to answer him, makes the offense more cowardly; and after hearing the testimony of five persons against one to say that he, the great uneducated pilgrim, had heard the testimony of ten persons all of whom lied, and that I, a fanatic, was doing great injury to this community and to myself, was entirely foreign to the charges that were brought before that honorable body for investigation, and in my judgment his great speech was colored by the same influence that caused the whole trouble. I know I would have been pardoned by those who were present in the litterest of justice, in denouncing this stillborn, in return there and then; but I also know that nothing good can emenate from personal abuse. I hope that the dignity of the Board will compel this stammering nonetity to explain his evasive conduct to me in the presence of that honorable body.

Most respectfully yours,

J. L. DAVIE.

At Scoville's Iron Works.

At Scovilles Iron Works is a very fine piece of machanicism which is in course of erection, being a revolving table, meat chopper which is being especially built for Wm. Long, of West Oakland, the machine has four large silver steel knives which strike the revolving block table 300 times per minute, with two plows that keep the meat constantly turning. The machine stands 3½ feet high, 32½ inches wide, has a capacity of chopping 500 pounds of meat per hour and weighs about 1100 pounds, it is a fine piece of work and shows that Oakland has the facilities of manufacturing fine machinery as well as our sister city.

STOP GRUMBLING.

An Easy Way to Make Life Really Worth the Living.

There is nothing which makes life so unendurable as dyspepsia. The dyspeptic growls and grumbles, scolds his wife, spanks his children, and gets angry with his neighbors. He feels that he is of no use upon earth, and is frequently led to leave the unpleasantness of existence in a summary manner. So anyone who does anything to relieve humanity of such an ill is worthy of the greatest commendation. It is in this line of argument that so many people find time to say kind things of Fred Sandelin & Co., of Seventh and Willow streets, West Oakland, and good words for their Swedish Dyspepsia Cure. This is not a quack nostrum, but a preparation compounded after much scientific research. It puts the digestive organs in a natural condition, and thus relieves sour stomach, liver complaint, indigestion, sick headache, and constipation, making the dolorous joyful and the sick well. It never fails. Thousands of people have freely and gladly offered testimonials to the splendid efficacy of this greatest of dyspepsia cures.

Killed a Big Buck.

Jack Hampton shot a very large deer last week near Mitchell's ravine which has been known to hunters as the "Great Eastern." It has been shot at many times and often wounded.

A Good Price for a Horse.
Pleasanton Times.

A. T. Hatch has just purchased of L. Schaffer of Livermore, a black 2 year old Sydney colt for the sum of $4000. Lou Schaffer made a fine profit out of the animal, as he purchased the colt about one year ago for $250. The youngster was driven a half in 1:13¼ a few days ago by J. Southerland, A. T. Hatch's driver. The colt has never been hitched to a sulky, and the above record was made in a common road cart.

Fires in the County.
Hayward's Journal.

The big barn of A. Chabot near Dublin was burned to the ground Monday, with about fifty tons of hay belonging to Peter Rasmussen, who also lost two horses and Henry Jensen one. Mrs. Rasmussen was badly burned in trying to rescue the stock.

A stubble fire in Palomares canyon Monday burned about 100 acres for John Conlan and Antone Flores. Considerable fencing was destroyed.

Haywards Local Line.
Hayward's Journal.

It does not require much of a prophet to see a bright future in store for Haywards and vicinity. The proposed electric road from Oakland is such a necessity that the Board of Supervisors will be only sanctioning public approval by granting the franchise. Then comes our street car line, to be built by H. W. Meek. This line is now an assured fact, for we learn this week that the contract for building the cars has already been let, and ground will soon be broken.

Grapes and Wine.
Livermore Herald.

J. E. Stover will lose but one third of his drying grapes. The remainder are all right.

Grapes drying on the ground fared much better during last week's rain than those on paper or cloth.

J. A. Rose expects to have a crop of 600 tons of grapes on his vineyard near Pleasanton this season. He has sold upwards of half of his crop to the Gallegos cellar at Mission San Jose.

The loss of grapes by last week's rain is less than was stated in our last issue. On the Vienna vineyard and Black and Stover places, where the losses were at first supposed to be total, but from one fourth to one third were sent to the fermenting tanks. The remainder are drying, and will soon be ready for the steamer.

From two to four car-loads of fine building rock are run on to the side track here daily from the Mehrmann Quarry, which is furnishing the stone for the Ellis mansion in the canyon back of the church.

Mrs. Gawthorne is still confined to her bed at the home of her parents in San Francisco. She is suffering from a very severe and painful attack of nervous exhaustion, supposed to have been largely induced by the shock on learning of Mr. Gawthorne's being run over while on the trip to the Yosemite, as she has been ill ever since her return in July. Mr. Gawthorne spends one or two nights in Sunol each week, being compelled to seek our dryer climate for relief of his bronchitis and throat troubles.

Mrs. Schroeder, who resides at the head of Neal street, tendered Mrs. F. V. Wenig a farewell dinner last Sunday, prior to her departure for her old home in Germany.

Richard Foley is lying very ill at his parents' residence on Vineyard avenue. His sister, Mrs. Bartlett of San Jose, and his brother, D. J. Foley, were telegraphed for, he being so very low it was deemed necessary. The latest report from his bedside is quite favorable to his recovery.

Some time between the hours of dark and dawn, Tuesday night last, burglars entered the residence of Mrs. Dr. Bass, on St. John street, just below Main. Although the lady, her daughters, Miss Maude and Miss May, were all at home, they slept so soundly that the midnight intruders carried off all the valuables they could find, without disturbing the sleepers.

J. Southerland, the driver and manager for A. T. Hatch, left for Cottonwood yesterday with a large string of horses. Mr. Hatch has lately purchased a large tract of land in that locality, and will enter into the stock business quite extensively. Mr. Southerland was offered his own price to take management of the new ranch, and after considerable urging concluded to do so.

A. B. Winegar, formerly of this valley, has just completed a handsome three-story business block, containing four stores and eight flats, at Valencia and Twenty-fourth streets, San Francisco. He has owned the lot for twenty-five years.

Mount Eden.
Haywards Journal.

The traveling public have a big kick to make at the way Roadmaster Kuck fixed the road near Haywards, opposite Russell's gum trees. He has placed a coating of Wood rock on top, and left the large boulders without covering them over with gravel, and the people have to drive on each side, that is now cut all to pieces. A few men with sledge-hammers could break up this rock and make it a little better, but to leave it as at present is a poor showing for a roadmaster. Two narrow escapes from an upset have already occurred.

Miss Lillie Bertram was given a surprise party Sunday, on attaining her thirteenth year. It was a complete surprise, and the young people spent the day in a most pleasant manner. The Ladies' Union Society of the Congregational Church will give the people of Haywards a treat next Tuesday evening, October 14th. Their programme will consist of a social, and a description of "The Bright Side of Life at Forty-seven Degrees Below Zero," by Rev. E. S. Williams, D. D., of Minneapolis.

The Republican nominees for Constables in this township are W. J. Ramage of Haywards and S. J. Smith of San Leandro. Mr. Ramage has made a model officer, and few men can be found who are more level-headed and possess his good judgment in serving papers. Mr. Smith of San Leandro is one of the most popular Republicans in our sister town, and is every way qualified to make an excellent Constable.

The book social that took place in N. S. G. W. Hall, last Friday evening, was well attended. About 210 volumes were received, that go to start the new library of the Native Sons. The programme of exercises consisted of solos by Miss Minnie Silvia, Annie Haas, Mamie Keating; duet (cornet and trombone), Messrs. Bennett and Gutman; piano solo, Miss Hattie Rice; recitations by Miss G. Gates, Eleanor Harrington, and Elsie Lavelle. At the conclusion, dancing was in order.

Gratifying.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

Deafness Can't be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo O.

The usual treatment of catarrh is very unsatisfactory, as thousands of despairing patients can testify. A trustworthy medical writer says: "Proper local treatment is positively necessary to success, but most of the remedies in general use by physicians afford but temporary benefit. A cure cannot be expected from snuffs, powders, douches and washes." Ely's Cream Balm is a remedy which combines the important requisites of quick action, specific curative power with perfect safety and pleasantness to the patient.

NATIONAL CASH REGISTER.

MERCHANTS: Systematize your business. A person who does business by rule, having a time and place for everything, doing his work promptly, will accomplish twice as much, and with half the trouble, as one who does it carelessly and slipshod. Take nothing for granted, but know what should be in your cash and credit drawer without counting it. After every transaction go to the National Cash Register; if a cash sale, press a key representing the amount of the sale. After a credit sale is made go to the Register, press the charged key, and put the duplicate tag in the cash drawer. At night, the adding wheels will show how many charge memorandums should be in the drawer, as well as the amount of cash that should be there. They cost you nothing; for they absolutely pay for themselves out of their savings. Read the following testimonials of well known Oakland business men. Investigate and be convinced:

OFFICE OF KIRKLAND & TROWBRIDGE, Pharmacists, 971 Broadway, Corner Tenth Street.

We have been using the National Cash Register since January 1st, and it has worked to our entire satisfaction. We would not part with it for TWICE ITS COST. On credit sales alone we believe it will pay for itself in one year's time.

Very respectfully, KIRKLAND & TROWBRIDGE.

Office of M. M. SAMSON, Wholesale and Retail Butcher and Pork Packer, 471 Eleventh St. and 1014 Washington St., Slaughter House, Oakland Stock Yards, Consignments Received on Commission.

I HAVE been using the National Cash Register now for nearly four years, and my experience is, so far, that if I had had the same Register ten years ago I would be worth a great deal more money.

AT FIRST, when you came to me to sell a Register, I thought that $200 was a great deal of money to pay for such a thing, but I readily and cheerfully state that in case I could not get another Register, I would not take $1000 for it.

Furthermore, I say that every business, no matter how small, should have one of these Registers, because it will pay for itself in a very short time. I have tried it, and have found out exactly what a Cash Register will do. It will make any and every business perfect.

Yours respectfully. M. M. SAMSON.

SEC. 46. The crown of roadways not exceeding 32 feet in width shall be 2 inches above the curb, and roadways of greater width, 4 inches, unless otherwise provided in the order of work.

BITUMINOUS PAVING.

(3 Classes.)

SEC. 47. For the first class, the bituminous sand rock shall be 2½ inches thick, laid on a 6-inch concrete foundation, or on old macadam which is perfectly solid, not less than 6 inches thick, and at the official sub-grade of bitumen. New curbing must be granite or sandstone.

SEC. 48. Concrete to be in place and rammed before setting.

SEC. 49. Concrete to be wet twice a day for seven days, and be swept clean before being covered with the bituminous sand rock.

SEC. 50. For the second class, the bituminous sandrock shall be two inches thick, laid either upon the old macadam, as in Section 47 of this Ordinance described, or else upon a foundation of six inches of hard broken rock. The size of rock and the method of laying and compacting to be same as in this Ordinance provided for macadamizing.

SEC. 51. For the third class, the bituminous sandrock to be one and one-half inches thick, laid on the old macadam, provided the macadam is not less than six inches thick, and the top surface at sub-grade of bitumen. Wherever the macadam is less than six inches thick and below sub-grade, it shall be filled to sub-grade with new macadam, rolled and compacted as in Section 45 provided.

SEC. 52. All bituminous sandrock shall be laid hot, raked, smoothed and rolled with hot irons and rollers to a true and even surface, and then finally rolled with a ten ton roller. Measurement for thickness of bitumen must be made after this final rolling of same.

SEC. 53. The bitumen shall be conveyed to the work in such manner that neither horses nor vehicles touch the concrete or rock foundation after it has been rolled.

CONCRETE.

SEC. 54. Proportions for concrete for bituminous crosswalks, for laying cast iron culverts with concrete bottoms, and for first class bituminous sand rock paving, shall be: one (1) barrel cement, three (3) barrels clean, sharp sand or gravel, six (6) barrels clean, hard, seamless rock, crushed to about the size of two inch cubes. Proportions for concrete for laying ironstone pipe culverts shall be one (1) barrel cement to six (6) barrels gravel.

Inside finish of the concrete bottoms for cast iron culverts shall be one to one Portland cement mortar.

SEC. 55. Concrete shall be mixed either by the most approved machine mixers or by hand. If by the latter process, then in the following manner: The rock must be spread upon a level flooring so as to make a pile of uniform 8 inch thickness, rectangular in shape.

The cement and sand or gravel to be thoroughly mixed dry in separate boxes apart from the rock. This mixture is to be then spread evenly upon the broken rock. The whole mass thus obtained to be then first mixed dry so that the sand and cement shall be thoroughly incorporated with the rock, and then finally mixed by shoveling it over while being sprinkled with water. There must be no loose water in the heap or on flooring. The rock must be clean and well washed immediately before being spread upon the flooring as above described.

The concrete must be mixed in batches or quantities, each not exceeding what can be laid and rammed before the cement has set.

SEC. 56. Wherever the word cement is used in these specifications, best quality of fresh Portland cement, subject to approval of City Engineer and Board of Public Works, is intended. Lumpy cement must be rejected. By a barrel of Portland cement is meant an unbroken original package or barrel, of full standard weight and measure. The barrel for measuring the sand and rock must be of same size as the cement barrel.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

All resolutions of intention shall declare the class of the paving, macadam, culverts, or crosswalks as herein specified.

SEC. 58. In macadamizing or paving streets the roadbed shall be cleared of all rubbish, refuse, slush and spongy earth.

SEC. 59. Trenches caused by sewer, gas or water pipe, to be settled by water and tamped solid.

SEC. 60. Roadbed to be brought to a true and even arc, and thoroughly compacted by rolling with a roller of at least five tons weight before laying any rock, and at least ten tons weight before laying concrete for bituminous paving.

SEC. 61. All work shall be to the official line and grade, as set by the City Engineer, and shall conform to the general or special plan, posted with the Notice to Contractors.

SEC. 62. All work must be so prosecuted as not to block the street unnecessarily. Impediments must be set by the contractor at night to mark piles of material and obstructions.

SEC. 63. Upon the completion of the work the contractors shall remove all surplus material from the street.

SEC. 64. The City Engineer or the Superintendent of Streets, in their respective capacities, shall have the authority to order the employes of any contractor to stop the construction of any work whenever in the judgment of said officials, the same is not being done in accordance with the specifications. And the contractor shall instruct his employes to obey forthwith any such orders from either of said officials.

SEC. 65. All work shall be done to the satisfaction of the Superintendent of Streets.

SEC. 66. Each bidder for street work shall file with the City Clerk and with the Superintendent of Streets, at least once before filing his proposals, samples of material to be used. The materials furnished must be up to the standard of the samples upon any work which may thereafter be awarded to said bidder.

PROPOSALS—HOW MADE.

SEC. 67. All proposals to be upon blanks furnished by the City Clerk.

SEC. 68. Upon the completion of the work, and before the issuance of the assessment warrant, the contractor shall file with the Superintendent of Streets a bond in the sum to be determined by the Mayor of the City of Oakland, guaranteeing the work for one year from injury by ordinary use. Said bond shall be approved as to sufficiency by the President of the Board of Public Works, and shall be upon the blanks furnished by the Superintendent of Streets.

SEC. 69. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

M'KENNA.

An Enthusiastic Greeting Last Night.

WHAT HE HAS DONE FOR OAKLAND.

An Immense Audience Listens to the Popular Representative.

Personal Recollections of Colonel Markham—An Intelligent Exposition of the McKinley Tariff.

There is no doubt that Congressman McKenna is a very popular man in Oakland. The crowd that turned out to greet him last night attested that, for the people swarmed in hundreds along the thoroughfares through which it was expected he would pass on his way to the Oakland Theater, where he was to make his opening speech in the present campaign, and the building itself they packed until aisles, seats, stage, and all were occupied by one vast throng of humanity.

Bonfires blazing on the street corners told of the event, and when to the quickstep of merry music the Oakland Band marched along Broadway and to the theater, the crowd hastened to the scene of political entertainment. Mr. McKenna, who had arrived from Suisun on the afternoon train, came quietly to the theater escorted by Sheriff Hale and E. C. Chapman, chairman of the County Committee, and as he stepped upon the platform and was recognized, he was greeted with a burst of cheering.

In his train came a long list of prominent Republicans who had been selected as vice-presidents of the evening, and as soon as they were seated in the accomodations provided for them on the stage, Mr. Chapman opened the meeting and introduced Sheriff Hale as the chairman of the evening.

Mr. Hale made a short but pleasant, preparatory speech, and provoked applause when he said that he was certain that not only Markham would be elected, but also all the Republican ticket. The fight was to see how much majority they would get. He then introduced Representative McKenna, and as that gentleman advanced to the front there was a clamor of welcome that could not easily be quieted. When it subsided the orator said:

Ladies, Gentlemen and Fellow Citizens: From the size and enthusiasm of this meeting I should certainly be justified in thinking that there is no tired feeling among the Republicans of Oakland. Nor should there be. Two years ago the Republican party submitted its platform, principles and policies, and received the suffrages of the country. That platform was indicative of the responsibilities of the party, its performance has been indicative of the merits of the party, for, in the language of Mr. Reed, it has been performed in a manner bearing a deed of trust.

The Republican party pledged itself to give to the country a tariff bill that would revive and protect American industries. It has done so. It promised silver legislation. It has given it. It promised to increase the pensions of its faithful soldiers. It has kept its promise. In a word, it has been faithful and efficient, and no legislative body has ever asserted its energy and usefulness more than the first session of the Fifty-first Congress in this the Harrison administration. It exists to do business, and it does business. It exists to make the Democrats useful, for it makes every Democrat useful in spite of himself; it counts him to make a quorum, and, whether sulky or idle, kicking or screaming, it makes him number 1 in '91. That is revolutionary, they cry. Revolutionary to make a Democrat useful—well, perhaps it is. The ridiculousness of some of the scenes in the Fifty-first Congress you can hardly realize, but I will give you a specimen page from its history, so that you can see some of the quackery that had to be endured.

A DEMOCRATIC MISTAKE.

It is a venerable chestnut to say that the Democratic party can always be relied on to make a mistake at the proper time but the reason I mention it is because a Democratic mistake is always the latest thing out. In the recent Congress, the assertion that a Congressman could be visible in his seat and yet lost to memory was one of the most colossal paradoxes that was ever heard of. Carlyle says: "Everything that exists must have some use, or else it would not have existed;" yet, looking back on the recent session in Washington, it would appear that the Democrats desired to exist without being of any use. Gone forever, I hope, is the incredible stupidity that a man could be absent, yet see and be seen in his seat.

I will give you an account of what occurred during the first day of the recent session. The contested election case of Smith versus Jackson was brought up and Crisp of Georgia raised a question of consideration.

The Speaker asked "Will the House now consider the resolution?" and after listening to the responses, announced that the ayes seemed to have it.

Crisp, however, demanded a division, and it stood 136 ayes, 124 noes, the ayes being all Republicans and the noes all Democrats.

"I demand the ayes and noes," said Crisp and then he sat down and wandered into oblivion. The vote resulted 172 ayes, 3 nays, 168 not voting, yet in the House sat 124 Democrats. What came next?

"No quorum!" shouted Crisp, coming out of his self-sought oblivion, but the Speaker directed the Clerk to record the names of those present and refusing to vote.

That was the first act in the emancipation of the House of Representatives, and if the Fifty-first Congress had done nothing more than that it would have immortalized itself and have gone down as one of the most illustrious in the annals of the country.

"I appeal!" said Crisp, when he heard the Speaker's ruling. Mark you, it was an appeal from a Democrat absent, or, rather, not present. I don't know how to express such quackery in the English language.

Speaker Reed, however, proceeded calmly and coolly with the calling of the names and when he got to that of Mr. Breckinridge of Kentucky, that gentleman sprang up and said: "I deny the power of the Speaker, and denounce it as revolutionary."

Mr. Reed, however, went on imperturbably, for he was sure of the fact, sure of himself and sure of the country. When the name of McCreary of Kentucky was reached there was a climax to the scene. "I deny your right, Mr. Speaker, to count me as present," he shouted.

Where in the world was he, then? He wanted to read parliamentary laws on the suniect, but he had better have read a fairy tale, a Democratic platform, or something illusionary of that kind. What did the speaker do?

"The chair is simply making a statement of the fact that the gentleman from Kentucky is present. Does he deny it?" said and asked Mr. Reed.

MAKING A PRECEDENT.

Now, was it revolutionary to state the truth? It may have been from a Democratic standpoint. If the truth is to be known and prevail, what will become of the Democrats? If Congress is to assemble to do business, that is the last of the Democrats. Colonel Irish and other Democrats denounce Mr. Reed's ruling on the ground that it had no precedents. When Chief Justice Mansfield said that no slave could tread on English soil, because the moment his foot was on it he was free, did he have a precedent? No; he made one. When Jefferson proclaimed in America the doctrine that all men were free and equal, did he have a precedent? No; like Mansfield, he made it for others. Mr. Reed's ruling was the decree of the right of a majority to rule, and that is the very essence and strength of this government. The idea he so boldly adhered to and carried through had been urged before in this country, but it had to be withdrawn, owing to the backwardness of party. Reed's merit was that he could discern the hour and opportunity for it and seized and used them against an opposition that would have palled any but the stoutest courage and baffled any but the most brilliant genius. Let the Democrats say what they will, Reed will be, and is, rated as one of the greatest party leaders of the world. The Democrats may rail and denounce him, but until they can rail the sun from the heavens they cannot change his course. The most important act since the abolition of slavery was the emancipation of the House of Representatives by Thomas B. Reed, and his uplifted gavel will stand at all times a monument of the integrity of legal procedure.

AN IMPORTANT CAMPAIGN.

I don't know that I can say that this is the most important campaign we have had, but looking back to the past and forward to the future, it does not seem that there can have been more important ones. Great things depend on it, for approval or disapproval will establish or upset what has been done, and every Republican in the country is certainly interested in that. All the county administration depends on it, the Legislature and the Congress also. Have you faithfully got those facts in your mind, and a remembrance of their importance to your industries, the State and the nation? By the elections in November we shall seize or let go our greatest opportunities. Dare any Republican hesitate or doubt, and will he let go at the supreme moment. There should be no Republican fault-finders, for has not our platform been maintained and our pledges redeemed. Let the Democrats find fault; they like it, and they have got nothing else to do. I do, therefore, most sincerely hope that every Republican will be on hand the 4th of next November, not only as a quorum, but to vote.

THE MAN AND THE PARTY.

I picked up a Democratic platform the other day and read it carefully. Before commenting on it, though, I will say something about the candidates, though I think that personalities cut small figures in politics. Now, we do not expect either Pond or Markham to be better or worse than the rest of their party. It is said that a man cannot live alone without being either an angel or a demon. It is the same with a candidate, and we don't want either, for we would not understand nor be understood by the angel, and we don't want a demon.

If you think the Republican party is better than the Democratic, vote for Markham; if you do not, you will, I suppose, vote for Pond. Let me say a word, though, for Colonel Markham. I know him well, for I served in the Forty-ninth Congress with him, and I can unqualifiedly say that he is most thoughtful, thorough and energetic, and specially gifted in executive qualities; and he will make a good Governor.

PIETY AND PIRACY.

And now I will return to the Democratic platform I was speaking about. I think that a man, who hated mankind, would read it with exquisite delight. It is not, however, all dreary waste. There is a gleam of light in it, but it does not shine very far—it is about as lurid as a dark lantern on a dark night in a Florida swamp. We have all heard of the sanctimonious pirate who, when he went to sea, scratched out of his copy of the Ten Commandments the injunction "Thou shalt not steal." He did so, that the Testament would not affect his piracy, and his piracy would not affect his sanctity. The Democratic Convention at San Jose did exactly the same trick. In their platform they introduced a resolution calling for the Australian ballot system, so that they might have purity of voting—so much for their sanctity. Then, in another resolution they denounced the Lodge bill, that would insure true elections—so much for their piracy.

THE LODGE BILL.

How about the Lodge Bill? My dear Democratic friends, you are deceived about it. There is no force about it, but simply overseeing; no intimidation, only light and knowledge. It will hurt nobody. There are grievances regarding the enactment of the bill, mostly growing out of race prejudice; but I will not enumerate them nor refer to what is said about its interference with the carrying of the southern elections for the Democratic party. The elections are either fair or not fair. If they are fair then the bill will not disturb them any more than a law against theft would be inimical to an honest man; if they are not fair, then no Democrat should object to their being made so. The bill is not introduced because it elects Republicans and defeats Democrats, but in the interests of justice. It gives the colored man his vote, and as it is a just measure no party should object to it. Even if all the murderers the world has ever known were gathered around their gibbets and tried to form a government, they would be compelled to make justice the foundation of their laws, for it permeates everywhere. In the case of the Lodge Bill it is not altogether brought forward because colored votes are intimidated, not because Southern elections are carried by unfair means; but because the elections in the North are nullified by them and the brightest hopes defeated. Is not that enough to insure its passage? But as a stronger argument let me give you a few statistics bearing on the subject. They will, I think, settle your mind regarding the matter. The thirty Southern districts have an average vote of only 125,015, nearly 70,000 votes less than an average of the votes of the six districts of California. Ponder over this and see if you don't think that the Fifty-first Congress should not adjourn until it passed the Lodge Bill.

TARIFF LEGISLATION.

In most of the campaigns in which I have participated, the difficulty has been what to say. In this, the difficulty is, what not to say. The topics that crowd forward for consideration, are what the Republican party has done, and what it has laid out to do; what laws have been enacted and what laws are to be enacted. Silver, pension and election legislation is the rich record that has been given or promised you and pre-eminent in that record stands the McKinley Bill, the greatest statute of its kind ever placed on the rolls of the government. You know its objects—they are to give you protection.

PROTECTION AND AMERICANISM.

Mr. Morrow said to me the other night in Congress: "I consider it generally auspicious that, as the first century of American history commenced with a tariff bill, the second century is being ushered in with another tariff bill for the protection of American industries."

The very first constitutional convention was but the deliberation of the merchants, who met at Annapolis to consider a tariff bill. The tariff was formed, the Constitution was next formed, and then came the Union. Tariff legislation was the instrumentality of beneficent purpose for the welfare of the country. The last campaign should have settled this question of Protection and Free Trade, but it comes out bolder than before—it springs from ambiguity—we can now tell what the tree is and what the fruit will be.

Only about four years ago the Democratic platform declared for a restoration of the wool tariff of 1867. Today it declares for free wool, and that is what I call a dip. There is no doubt about it, the newest thing to be found under the sun is a Democratic platform that says what its party means. We know now, though, who are the friends and who the foes of protection. The friends are the Republicans and the American people, and the enemies are the Democrats and the foreign people. Senator Evarts said that it would not be polite or true to say that the Democratic party is the ally of England, but it certainly is polite and true to say that England is the ally of the Democratic party. Whether assured or not, it ought to be enough for Americans, especially when conjoined with the evidence of their own senses. If any one asks what protection has done let him look for an answer in our magnificent cities and homes, and our broad acres teeming with wealth and progress. Tariff reformers say, though, that all this prosperity would come in spite of the tariff. Don't take chances on it, or you may have occasion for a graveyard epitaph, reading:

I was well,
I tried to be better,
I took some Free Trade pills,
Because they could be
Bought in a cheap market.
And here I am!

Mr. Cleveland says that a tariff not only raises the price of foreign goods but of domestic ones also.

Mr. Mills, of Texas, says that every $1 raised by the tariff means $5 to the manufacturers.

Mr. Springer is cautious, but Mr. Moore reached the climax when he said that there is a cost to the country by the tariff tax of one thousand million dollars a year. Do you realize what that means. It is a sum of money four times as much as the assessment of the State of Maine and $56,000 besides. Do you believe that this country could be prospering, as it is if it were flinging away every year four States like Maine and $56,000 besides. What a colossal preposterance such a statement is; and if you have supported it you should go home tonight ashamed of your political creed.

DEMOCRATIC FAULTFINDERS.

I said a little while ago that the Democratic party liked to find fault. There are shadow sides to everything, and the deeper the shade the brighter is the light. Their principles, when applied to politics, mean nihilism, socialism, dynamite and the dagger; if they were applied to religion they would mean irreverence, scoffing and infidelity. You can impeach the sunshine, the sun, the winter, the earth and rising in audacity and blasphemy you could even impeach the Creator. In the same way the Democrats can impeach our principles. We don't say that we consider our tariff law a substitute for everything; we don't say that it clears away everything; but we do say that it gives American pluck, energy and brains a chance. We say it has and always will make America another name for opportunity. It is not alone the farm, but the levee around the farm that must be protected. We want to obstruct the foreign trafficker.

"Oh!" says the free trader, "If you do, you obstruct commerce."

"Take down the barriers!" shouts Miller of Texas. But no! we won't do it; for barriers are good sometimes.

A STORY FOR COLONEL IRISH.

Now, let us take one of these free-trade Democrats and his arguments (Colonel Irish, for instance), a roaming Congressman in "an educational campaign." He visits a farmer up on the Sacramento river, talks to him about the taxes, tells him that he is taxed from the moment he arises in the morning to the moment when he goes to bed at night, from the cradle to the grave, in fact. And as he talks, the Colonel quotes Sidney Smith, Brougham, and other free traders, and they walk along until they reach the levee, outside which the river is slashing and frantic to get in, like the foreign traders on the shores of America.

"By the way," says Colonel Irish, "why don't you take down the levee and give nature a chance?"

The farmer looks up and says: "What are you giving us?"—(his language is not as polished as Colonel Irish's.) "What's your name anyhow?"

"I am Colonel John P. Irish of Oakland, the Democratic nominee for Congressman for the Third District," is the response.

"Oh!" says the farmer, "I've heard of you. You're an orator. That's all right. I sometimes spin yarns myself and puzzle my neighbors. You keep your fine talk, though, for your next speech in Oakland—the Democrats won't understand it, but they'll say what a hard nut you are for McKenna to crack, and how you can wipe the floor with him. It don't go with me, though."

Then Irish takes his departure and the farmer tells his neighbors how a Democratic politician came to him, and with a lot of lingo, tried to get him to take down the levee. Meantime Irish will be thinking what a failure an educational campaign is. With that illustration, which contains a great deal of argument, I will leave the subject and go to the McKinley bill," said Mr. McKenna, as the laughter died away.

THE MCKINLEY BILL.

"You elected me on a platform which called for a revision of the tariff in the interest of American industries. I have already told you that the party has done that, and I am happy to say that I assisted in bringing about the desired change, for when you returned me you said that such a bill would make the nation prosperous. The McKinley bill protects all the California industries but oranges, and when it left the House, it protected them, too. It exempts from taxation the spirit required for the fortification of sweet wines, which, as it amounted to ten or fifteen cents a gallon on all such wines, now makes this an amply protected sweet wine section. The Democratic representatives in Congress from this State certainly assisted in these changes: Senator Hearst did particularly, but he voted against the bill that contained them. The Republican party passed it, and should get the credit for it.

THE HARBOR.

One word of a local nature. I understand there is some censure of me because of the harbor and postoffice here. Now, what is the situation regarding them? The harbor is not progressing very fast, and the postoffice does not seem to progress at all. Why?

The appropriations are not made in a lump, because the country has not yet succeeded in struggling away from the old Democratic policy of opposition to improvements. To complete your harbor would require $50,000,000. The country is not prepared for it; neither are you. Since I have represented you in Congress I will tell you what has been done. In the Forty-ninth Congress you got an appropriation of $65,000—it was $75,000 in the House bill. In the Fiftieth Congress you got $350,000, and in the Fifty-first Congress $250,000, and not $175,000, as some of your papers say. Now those are good appropriations, are they not? My predecessor, Mr. Glascock, did not get any appropriations of $350,000 or $250,000—I do not blame him for that though—his merit is as great as mine, but the circumstances were not favorable to him.

I cannot promise you that I will erect bathhouses for you such as Colonel Irish talks about. His is all rhetoric, but I will be called upon for performance, because I am to be elected. As regards the mud that he says should be placed where it will improve the city, he knows very well that the Government will not put it in any particular spot for the city's improvement—it could not even be located for a levee. When the $100,000 bill for the improvement of the Sacramento and Feather rivers passed and an attempt was being made to get the waste for levees there, Mr. Blanchard of Kentucky was anxious that I should press the matter, but I soon found that the Government dissented. It is afraid that such material might be used for the improvement of private property.

As regards the man who represents you in Congress, you may be sure that he will participate, as much as possible, in your desires, though he be a non-resident, instead of a dweller in Oakland. Why should he not? The fact that he is returned requires that he shall give his industry and ability to his constituents. And I wish to say here that you can be sure that if any Oakland man can get anything in Congress, I can.

I am getting somewhat tired of some of the things said in the papers. A recent issue of the Alta has a two-column editorial urging the Democrats of the City and County of San Francisco to vote for the Democratic nominees straight. Now if that is good for there, let it be good for here, only vote for the Republicans straight. The issue of the Alta I allude to, has a glowing tribute to Clunie. He certainly is a good man, but there is one thing in giving him his due and another in pushing aside all the other candidates. It is always the way though. When the Democrats get anyone who does any one thing, they make as much fuss about him as if he were Little Jack Horner, who because he pulled out a plum, said "What a good boy am I."

THE POSTOFFICES.

Clunie did not, as has been claimed, get the Postoffice bill for Los Angeles, when Vandever could not get it—it has not been passed, in fact. And, while talking about the subject, I will ask where would the Sacramento Postoffice bill be unless I had some influence? And, my fellow-citizens, your Postoffice bill, if passed, will be so in a like way. I cannot say, surely, that I can pass it, but I can say, surely, that I will try to.

Why can I not pass it necessarily? Because the policy of the party is only to allow so many bills to pass at a time. Vandever, Biggs and De Haven failed to get their bills through; maybe I'll get yours passed, maybe not. But you are sure to get it either in the next session of Congress or the one following.

When I read Irish's speech about the tons of coal and the sizzling teapots, I don't think I ever had more pleasure. I was glad to see what he said; it looked as if he might turn protectionist. He and his party have been denouncing Custom Houses, but now he says Oakland has not enough. The subject has been laid before you in the papers, though, so I will not take it up now.

"And now as I will be here and speaking to you again, I think I can afford to conclude for this evening. I wish before stopping, though, to return you my hearty thanks for your past support and to thank you for the confidence that has given me the privilege of being before you tonight as once more your nominee for the Congressional honors of the Third District."

Round after round of applause resounded as Mr. McKenna took his seat and as soon as quiet could be obtained Chairman Hale introduced the Booth Glee Club of San Francisco, who sang very harmoniously a campaign song entitled "With Markham and Reddick We Are Marching Along."

When they had concluded someone shouted: "Three cheers for Congressman McKenna!" and they were heartily given, the orchestra chiming in with a rattle of drums. Then one of the Alliance boys gave the campaign slogan:

"What's the matter with McKenna?"

A hundred lusty pairs of lungs responded:

"He's all right,
You bet.
Every time!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Alliance,
McKenna!"

This brought the meeting to a close, and after an informal reception on the stage of the many friends who crowded to greet him, the popular Congressman returned with his escort to his hotel headquarters.

The Texas Tribune says:—"The late atmospheric freshness has brought on many cases of cough, and cold, and Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is in great demand.

"What wound did ever heal but by degrees?" The thousand cases daily cured by Salvation Oil.
